

BRH awarded Contributor with Most Popular Article in Australia

The Mondaq award for Contributor with the Most Popular Article in Australia, for September 2019 - “Home wasn’t built in a day – Termination for Delay under a Residential Building Contract”.

Congratulations to Michael Byrom and Lachlan Amerena, authors of the winning article.

Published as part of a four-part series considering the termination of residential building contracts, Lachlan’s article was the most read Mondaq article last month.

Mondaq, as one of the largest global advisory content suppliers, publishes thousands of articles annually from over 80 countries around the world.

You can read Lachlan’s winning article here: Home wasn’t built in a day – termination for delay under a residential building contract.
